A series of Articles Introducing the New Residents of Levittown to The Community.

(By Staff Reporter)

Two brothers associated in two businesses are neighbors on Tamarack lane, Leonard E. Cluck at number 7, and Stanley, at 22.

With their father, they are partners in William Cluck & Sons, Luggage Manufacturers, of Phila. Leonard is general manager, and Stanley, sales manager. Stanley Cluck is also an insurance broker in Phila., with Leonard associated as an agent.

The brothers moved their families here from Phila. May 16, "the same day, in the same truck, with the same mud," according to Leonard's wife Grace. The Leonard Clucks have three children, Peter, 7, completing first grade in Fallsington School; Kenneth, 4½; and Laurie, 14 months old.

Leonard Cluck is a native of Boston, Mass., and attended Boston University. He served in the Army Air Corps in World War II, and was 18 months overseas. His wife, born in New York, N. Y., attended Brooklyn College.

Stanley Cluck, and his wife, Irene, expect the arrival of their first child in September. He is a native Bostonian and a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania. His wife is originally from Phila.
