

Corner Stone Laid August 11, 1846
Structure Dedicated January 22, 1847

THE
KELLER CHURCH
IN CANOE VALLEY
PENNSYLVANIA

•
*A crown upon this hill
This structure fitly rests,
Its jewels cut with skill;
A century attests.*

*A song of glad ascent,
Full surges in the deeps
Of pilgrims hither bent,
While memory tryst keeps.*

*"A hundred years, and still the light
God kindled in their hearts shines on,
By faith they kept it burning bright,
And so have we since they have gone.*

*"So may the light once kindled here,
Beam from this little House of God,
A beacon shining far and near
To weary ones who homeward trod."*

From the poem "A Hundred Years," by the Rev. Charles A. Huyette
